G Line Project

Public Engagement

G Line planning phase engagement

As the G Line project enters the construction phase, there are several ways to stay informed and engaged with project updates and activities:

- Review final station designs on the G Line stations page
- View past presentations about the G Line project and upcoming construction activities
- Watch this video about bus rapid transit service
- Request a meeting with project staff for your group or organization to learn more about construction impacts and timelines
- Subscribe to the G Line Update to receive project news and construction updates directly in your inbox
- View public engagement and construction information materials related to the project
